WITH THE MASTER

A Ladies' Bible Study on Prayer

On Our Knees

SUSAN J. HECK

When asking believers, "What part of the Christian walk do you struggle with the most?" the answer is usually "prayer." As Elisabeth Elliott once said, "Prayer is irksome. We are reluctant to start and delighted to end."

With the Master On Our Knees is an exciting in-depth study which promises to equip Christians for a deeper and more meaningful life of prayer. It will challenge you to pursue more meaningful prayer with the Master, and show by example how the Old and New Testament saints prayed. This expository Bible study includes homework questions at the end of each chapter for further learning. It is for individuals who desire a more intimate prayer life. It is the author's hope that when you have finished this book, you will be delighted to start and reluctant to end your praying.

I looked forward to reading With the Master On Our Knees and I was not disappointed. In fact, it made me sad when I got to the last chapter because there were no more chapters! Susan Heck has written a wonderful book on prayer. Two (of many) strengths of this book are the accounts of the prayers' backgrounds and the questions at the end of each chapter. This is a book that I can wholeheartedly recommend.

MARITZA PALCE
Biblical Counselor and Author of The Everlast Wings

Susan is a skilled biblical counselor who, in this volume, skillfully points us toward the God of all comfort. Her call to prayer is needed!

RANDY PATTEN, Executive Director
National Association of Nontheistic Counselors

Susan consistently brings rich precepts and principles mixed from a humble and serious study of the revelation of God. She loves the Word for she knows that it alone sanctifies, and she loves the Church, for whose sake she works. This book will contribute to your understanding and practice of the precious privilege and discipline of prayer.
